

NOKCHA - GREEN TEA

ORGANIC SEJAK KOREAN GREEN TEA

Hand-picked semi wild tea trees picked after Woojeon

$15

ORGANIC WOOJEON KOREAN GREEN TEA

Hand-picked after the rains, "Qing Ming", semi wild tea trees, extremely low quantities

$25

RED TEA

ORGANIC ISEUL BALHYO

Spring picked oxidized wild tea leaves, somewhere between an Oolong and a black tea

$15

Origin: Hadong, Korea

TISANES

AROMATIC QUINCE

Cross Between an apple and a Pear with Sourness and Natural Sweetness

$7

WILD PEAR

Much Smaller than a regular pears, grown in the wild, full of nutrients and natural sugar

$7

MULBERRY LEAF

Almost the same taste structure of a green tea without the caffeine

$9

MISTLETOE

Evergreen and growing on oak trees used for centuries

$9

ARTEMESIA

Mugwort species picked in the spring and delicately dried to preserve its nutrients

$14

WILD PERSIMMON

Uncultivated and picked once in late spring before the fruit forms

$15

WHITE LOTUS

White lotus leaves, lightly dry baked, long revered for its elegant taste

$15

Origin: Hadong, Korea

IN HOUSE TISANES

PUMPKIN, HOBAK CHA

A tea of blended roasted pumpkin and kabocha squash

$6

CITRUS, GAEJEOLGYUL CHA

Tea made from sliced roasted seasonal citrus

$6

LOTUS, YEONNIP CHA

Tea made from sliced roasted lotus root

$6

BURDOCK, UEONG CHA

Tea made from sliced roasted burdock root

$6